DISCLAIMER - Outdoor activities always have some potential for danger. Each individual is personally responsible for his or her safety and wellbeing. It is recommended that you not ride terrain beyond your ability. However, while on a ride if you feel you cannot safely navigate an area, ask for assistance from a more experienced rider. Also, remember trail conditions are subject to change. Contact the trip leader if you are unsure if the trip is suitable for your abilities.

The undersigned applies for membership in the Northwest Wyoming Off-Highway Vehicle Alliance Inc. and does hereby agree to abide by all Club Rules and By-laws with the intent to be legally bound by this application under the uniform written obligations act of the State of Wyoming. And, the undersigned also acknowledges the risk of injury to their person and property while participating in "Off-Highway Vehicle" events. The undersigned will rely on "his or her" own judgment and ability while participating in club's events and assume all risks of injury or damage arising out of such participation. The undersigned hereby releases, Northwest Wyoming Off-Highway Vehicle Alliance Inc. of and from any liability for personal injuries or property damage incurred as a result of such participation. The undersigned will not bring legal action against, or make any claim whatsoever against Northwest Wyoming Off-Highway Vehicle Alliance Inc., or against any officers, organizers or volunteers of our sanctioned events, as a result of such participation. Upon signing this application, parents or legal guardian of minor children consent to their children's participation in club activities, photos, and agree to assume all responsibility, for personal injury or property damage.
